Investment Commentary September 2022

Market Summary

The Russia-Ukraine conflict escalated after Moscow annexed four regions in south-eastern Ukraine. The European Union (EU) implemented a price cap on seaborne Russian oil while the US imposed sanctions on Russia's central bank governor.

The US Federal Reserve (Fed) increased its benchmark interest rate by 75bps for the third consecutive meeting to a range of 3-3.25%. Fed chair Jerome Powell indicated that monetary policy needs to be "more restrictive or restrictive for longer" to contain soaring inflation and also refused to rule out a recession.

According to the median estimate on the Fed dot plot, officials expect the interest rate to reach 4.4% by the end of the year before peaking at 4.6% next year. The central bank downgraded US annual GDP growth forecasts to 0.2% for 2022 and expects core inflation to fall to 3.1% from 4.5% by the end of the year.

The BoE raised its benchmark interest rate by 50bps to 2.25%, its highest level since 2008. The BoE now expects the UK economy to contract by 0.1% in Q3 2022 and inflation to rise by less in the short term due to the government's energy price guarantee. The European Central Bank (ECB) raised its benchmark interest rate by 75bps to 0.75%, the highest level since 2011, to tackle surging inflation. The ECB president, Christine Lagarde, indicated several interest rate increases would be needed in the coming months to bring inflation down to the bank's target of 2%.
